THIS WEEK ON LOCAL-GOVERNMENT FEEDS

New businesses on social media

Big names and local owners both deserve a welcome. Four posts that did it well.

BIG NAMES

LOCAL OWNERS

+

GovFeeds

swipe →

BIG NAME: SHOW THE PROGRESS

Keep residents posted as it takes shape.

Bullhead City, Arizona posted that the Olive Garden sign is up, where the restaurant is, when it should open, and what it brings: dining, jobs, and investment on the Highway 95 corridor.

BIG NAME: SHARE THE NEWS FIRST

Be the first place residents hear it.

Mt. Lebanon, Pennsylvania announced that Wegmans will anchor the Galleria, shared the full news release, and promised a link to the local magazine story.

LOCAL OWNER: WELCOME THEM BY NAME

Show the place and the people.

City of Talladega Government about a week ago

WELCOME TO TALLADEGA!

The City of Talladega is excited to welcome Sam's Southern Eatery to our community!

Sam's Southern Eatery celebrated its soft opening on October 29, 2026, bringing another dining option to our city!... See more

The City of Talladega, Alabama welcomed Sam's Southern Eatery on its soft opening, with photos from behind the counter and of the menu board.

LOCAL OWNER: LET THEM TALK

Quote the owners.

St. James Parish
last Friday

Congratulations to St. James Parish's newest small business - Swamp Authority- Da Swamp Hat Co.!

Owned by Ryan and Montana Peltier, this small business provides a wide variety of hunting and fishing gear, clothing, home products, and of course, their signature custom hats.

Montana Peltier said, "We're incredibly grateful for all the support and so excited to officially open Swamp Authority. It's been a labor of love, and seeing everything come together and having everyone ce... See more

St. James Parish, Louisiana congratulated its newest small business, named the owners, described what they sell, and quoted one of them on opening day.

BORROW THESE

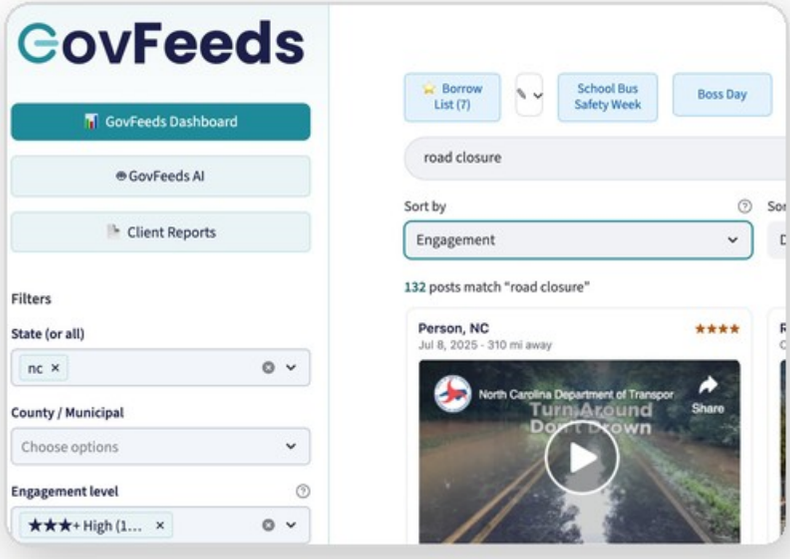

What all four posts include

- The name, said plainly
  The business or the owners, right at the top.
- Where it is
  A corridor, a shopping center, a street residents know.
- When
  The opening date, or a progress milestone.
- Why it matters here
  New jobs, a new place to eat, a local family's dream.

FIND YOUR NEXT POST

See how other towns welcome new businesses.

Search what cities and counties actually post about new businesses, then borrow what fits your community.

Start a free trial app.govfeeds.com

GovFeeds