

COUNTED THIS WEEK · U.S. LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Back-to-school season starts in July.

546 back-to-school posts from 361 governments in the last three weeks — 1.7× the three weeks before. And the best ones share a playbook.

THE RAMP

546

posts · last 3 weeks

316

the 3 weeks before

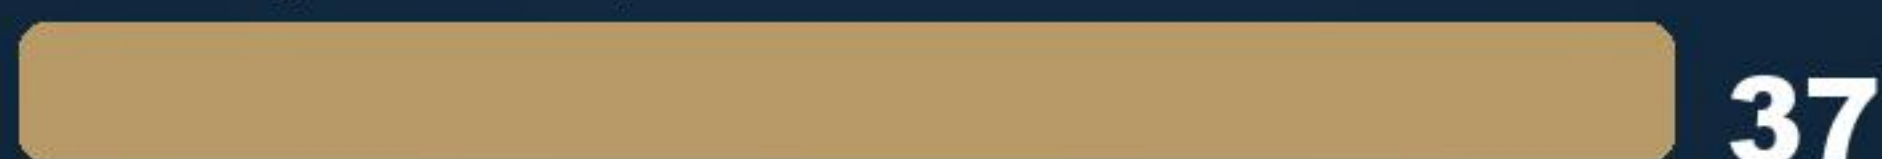

Families plan August in July — and school-supply drives, registration windows, and bus routes are all landing in feeds now.

THE TWIST

The recap beats the announcement.

Back-to-school posts built around photos of what happened average 37 reactions — vs. 16 for posts without. The invite gets a shrug; the photo album gets the love.

City of Clarksville, TN

staff delivering 8,300 packages of supplies to educators

169 reactions

All three are recaps — the story of the day, told in photos.

THE PLAYBOOK

- ① Announce it once — place, date, what to bring.
- ② Then tell the story after: photos, names, thank-yous.
- ③ Tag the partners who made it happen.
- ④ Save the album — it's next year's promo.
