CITY OF STAUNTON, VIRGINIA

Proposing a change? Say what it is, and where to weigh in.

City of Staunton, VA – Government about a week ago

Changes for Greenville Avenue (Route 11) are in design , and VDOT is seeking your feedback on the proposal.

VDOT is hosting a Design Public Hearing regarding the proposed roadway reconfiguration, often called a "road diet," for the 0.92-mile stretch between Statler Blvd and Commerce Rd.

CITY OF FEDERAL WAY, WASHINGTON

New enforcement? Give the start date, the limits, and the warning period.

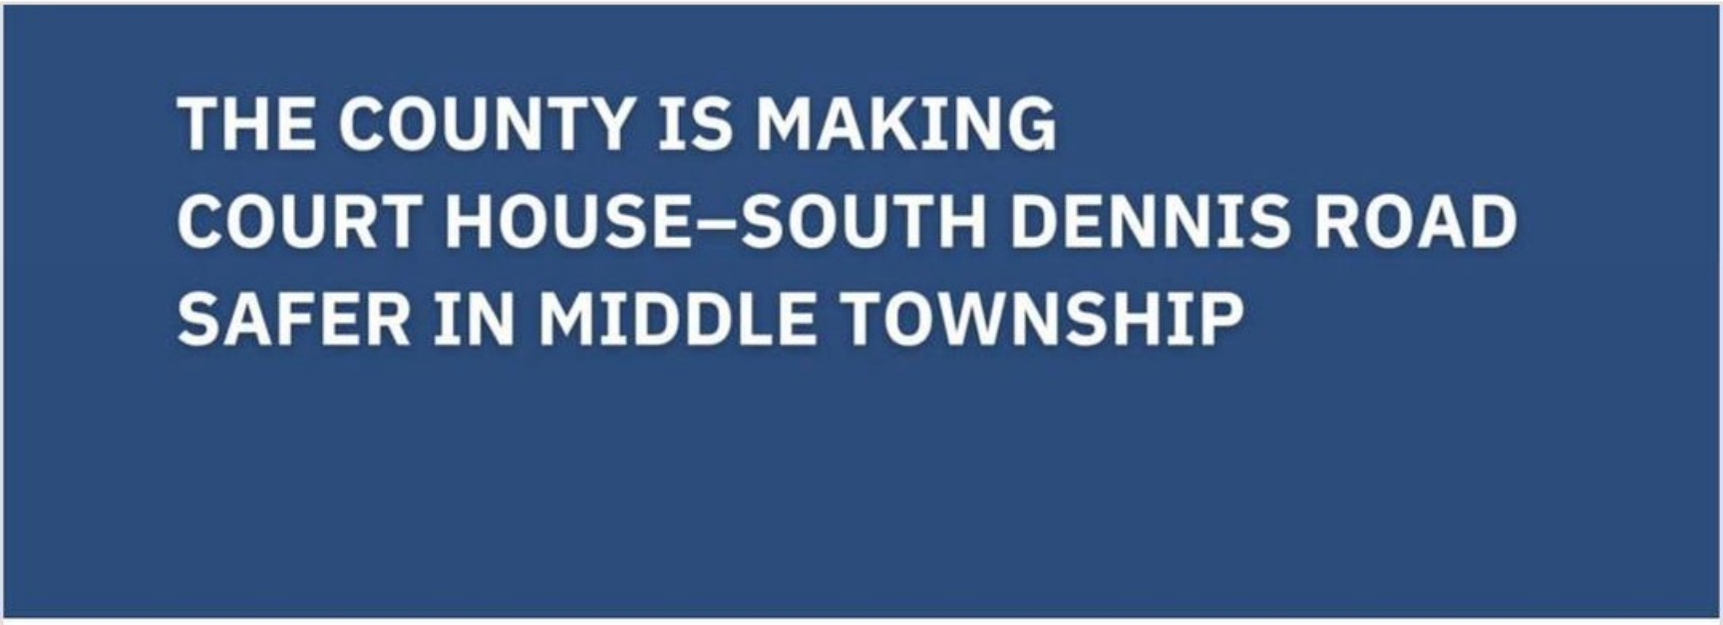

Starting today, Nov. 2, the 30-day speed safety camera warning period will be in effect outside school zone hours. The speed cameras will operate 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

After the warning period, effective Dec. 2, drivers who exceed the posted speed limit of 35 mph will receive an infraction notice by mail. Drivers who go over the 20 mph speed limit during school zone hours will still receive a ticket during the warning period.

CAPE MAY COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

Lowering a speed limit? Say why: the study, the crashes, what came before.

The County is making Court House–South Dennis Road safer in Middle Township.

Following an engineering study, the speed limit will drop to 45 mph on a 1.3-mile stretch near Goshen-Swainton Road, and the no-passing zone will be extended at the busy intersection with Goshen-Swainton Road.

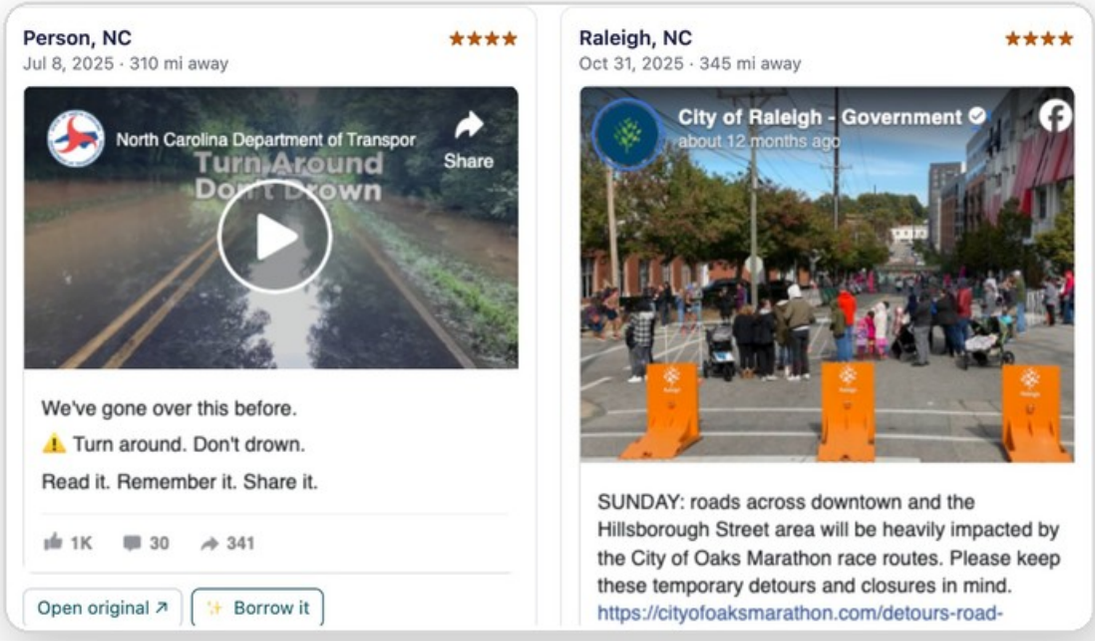

These changes build on earlier safety upgrades (rumble strips, radar signs, and flashing lights) at a location that has seen serious crashes.... See more
