

NEW GUIDE · 1.1 MILLION POSTS

What to post this month on social media.

Measured across 1,142,010 posts from 4,964 city and county governments. The lever is the mix, not the volume.

Two gaps worth closing →

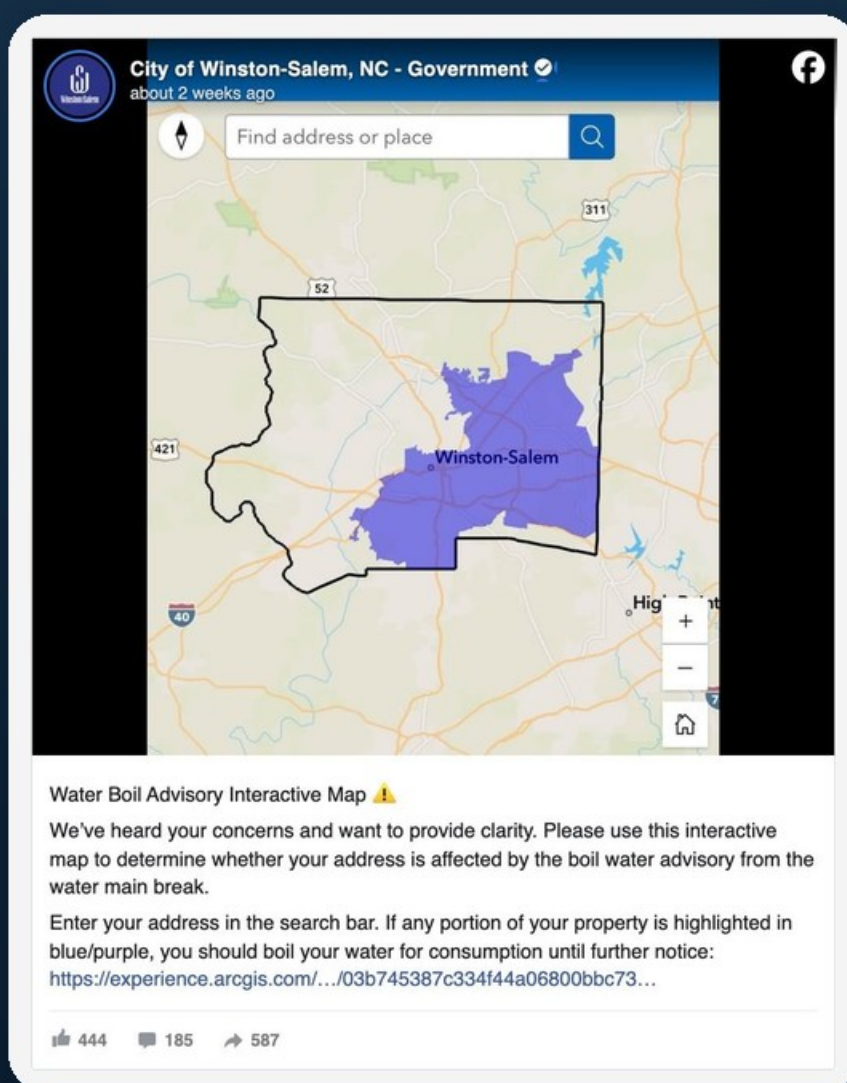

THE TOPIC GAP

8.5%

of the average calendar goes to infrastructure, the most-forwarded topic in local government. 68% of infrastructure posts earn a share. The four weakest topics take 37%.

CITY OF WINSTON-SALEM · NORTH CAROLINA

Make the infrastructure post useful.

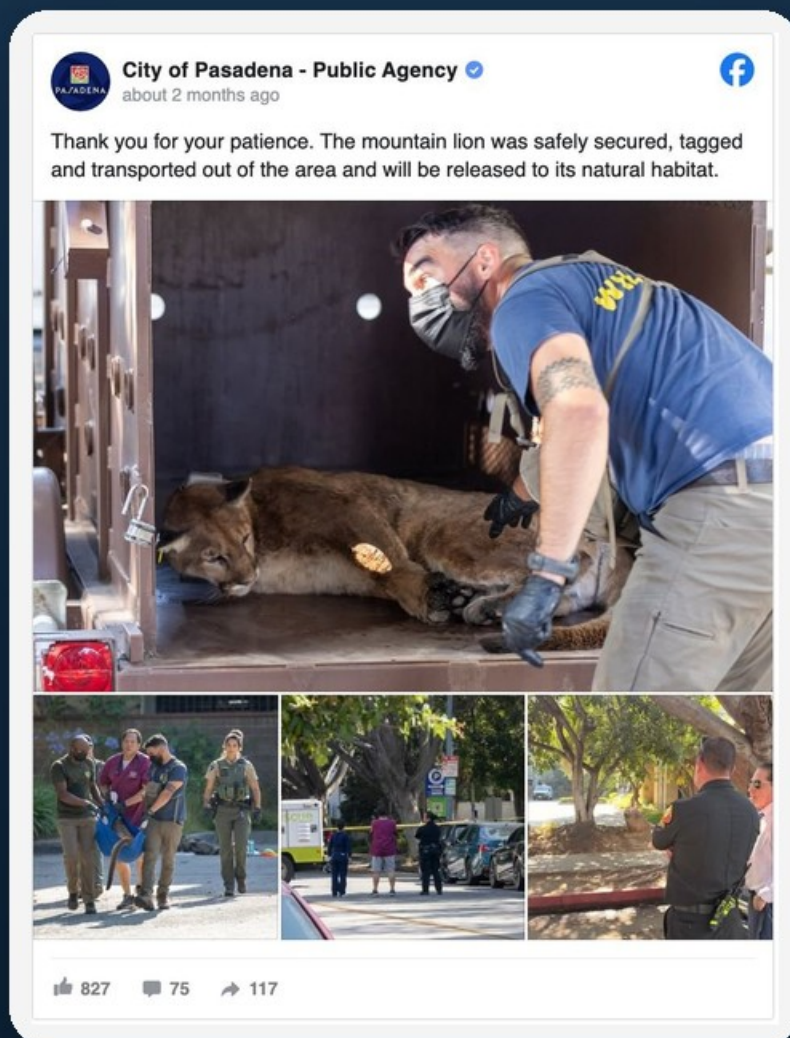

WHY IT TRAVELS

A boil-water advisory with an interactive map: residents type their address and see whether it covers them. Built to be forwarded.

CITY OF PASADENA · CALIFORNIA

Use the weekend.

THE WEEKEND GAP

Saturday and Sunday carry 11.8% of local-government posts and out-earn every weekday. Pasadena closed the loop on a mountain lion on a Saturday: 827 reactions, on a page whose median post earns 3.

READ THE GUIDE

Shift the mix, don't add volume.

Engagement holds steady up to about 30 posts a month, then falls off. Move posts toward the topics residents forward.

The full guide, with a checklist you can paste into a draft:

govfeeds.com/guides/what-to-post