

TWO WORDS THAT LIFT A POST

“Thank you” on social media.

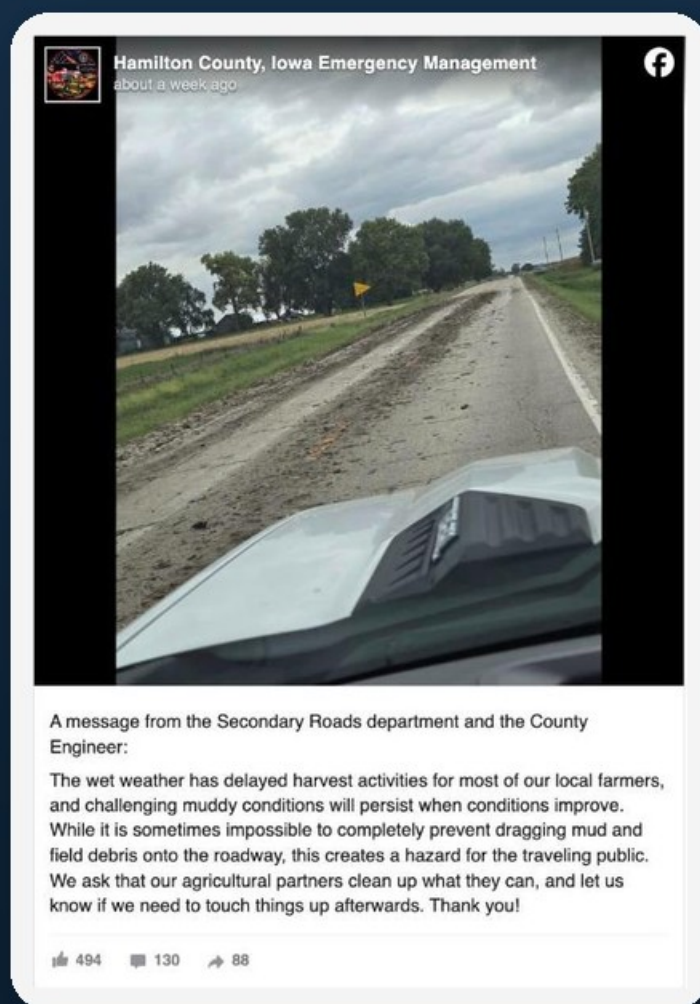

Posts that thank someone draw 1.9× a page's usual engagement, on 78% of pages. Only 1 in 10 government posts says it.

HAMILTON COUNTY · IOWA

Make the ask, then say thanks.

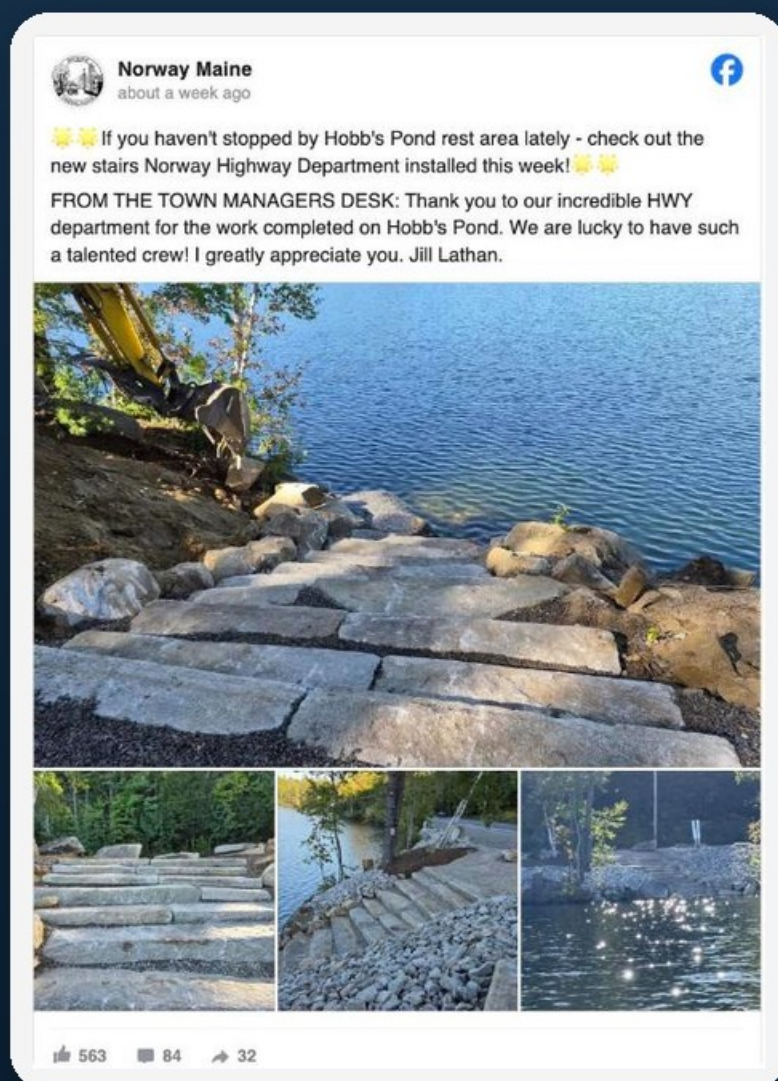

WHY IT WORKS

Harvest mud on county roads. The roads department explained the hazard, asked farmers to clean up what they can, and closed with “Thank you!”

NORWAY · MAINE

Thank your own crew, in public.

WHY IT WORKS

New stone stairs at Hobb's Pond, and a note from the town manager's desk thanking the highway department. Signed by name.

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP · OHIO

Name the volunteer.

A resident spent weeks cleaning old headstones, now in the veterans section. The township thanked him by name, with his photo.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Credit people by name.

A specific person, a specific job, a plain thank-you. It costs nothing and it is the second-strongest lift we measured.
