NEW IN GOVFEEDS · SOCIAL MEDIA

Local government YouTube, now searchable.

Official YouTube channels from cities, towns and counties now sit next to their Facebook, Instagram and X posts in GovFeeds. Here is what governments post, and what to borrow.

Nine videos worth a look →

GovFeeds

swipe →

NINE GOVERNMENTS, NINE STATES

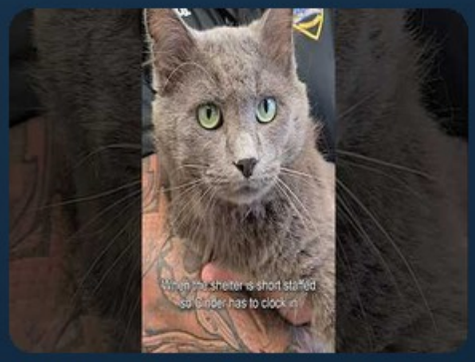

Videos worth borrowing

Greenville, TX: council recap

Sacramento PD: ride-along series

Monroeville, PA: shelter cat clocks in South St. Paul, MN: a 75-second how-to

New Albany, OH: Cops and Bobbers

Alexandria, VA: junior docents

Deerfield Beach, FL: under the pier

Clayton, NC: a building's history

Myrtle Beach, SC: staff on camera

Each did several times better than its own channel's typical video. Thumbnails link to the originals in our blog post.

GovFeeds

swipe →

CITY OF GREENVILLE · TEXAS

Post a short recap next to the meeting.

THE FORMAT

About 45% of government uploads are meeting recordings. Greenville adds a three-minute recap after each one, and residents watch the recap.

GovFeeds

swipe →

MONROEVILLE · PENNSYLVANIA

One subject, a real face.

THE FORMAT

Twenty-four seconds of a shelter cat clocking in. Most of the videos that stood out were under two minutes, about one thing, with a person or animal on camera.

GovFeeds

swipe →

YOUTUBE IN GOVFEEDS

Search video with everything else.

Filter the dashboard to YouTube, search titles by keyword, and turn a video that worked elsewhere into a plan for your own.

Try GovFeeds free for 14 days:

app.govfeeds.com

GovFeeds